Coleman honored

By FRANCES B. PAULETTE

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Men of America Awards Program have announced that Kenneth Howell Coleman of Lexington has been selected for inclusion in the 1981 edition of OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA.

Ken, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Coleman of Appomattox is a graduate of Appomattox High School, and a 1971 graduate of Virginia Military Institute.

Those individuals selected are men who are working diligently to make their communities, as well as their country, a better place in which to live.

The criteria for selection include a man's voluntary service to community, professional leadership, academic achievement, business advancement, cultural accomplishments and civic and political participation.

Coleman, as well as the other young men selected, has distinguished himself in several fields of endeavor.

He is immediate past president of the Jaycees of Lexington. He has served as president of the V.M.I. Round Ball Club for two years. In addition he is a director of the Chamber of Commerce of Rockbridge County.

Coleman and his wife, the former Brenda Carter of Lexington are members of the Lexington Country Club and of the Robert E. Lee Memorial Episcopal Church in Lexington.

Coleman is Assistant Vice-President of Institution Foods in Lexington.

The Colemans are parents of a son, Kenneth Carter Coleman.

Coleman and other young men selected for this honor were chosen from nominations received from Senators, Congressmen, Governors, Mayors, State Legislators, University and College Presidents and Deans as well as various civic groups, including the United States Jaycees which also heartily endorses the Outstanding Young Men of America Program.

Coleman, along with fellow Outstanding Young Men throughout North America will be featured in the 1981 edition of the annual awards publication.

DR. JUDY WHITTEMORE, superintendent of schools in Wythe County, gives practical advice on obtaining a teaching position to education majors at Longwood College. Other speakers at the seminar, a service of Longwood's placement office, were Ned Carr (left), assistant director of personnel for the Newport News school system, Lloyd Wallen, superintendent of schools in Appomattox County, and Andronikki Fallis, director of placement services at Longwood. Dr. Whittemore, a native of Cumberland County and a Longwood graduate, is the only woman superintendent of schools in Virginia.

BOB V. SOUTHWORTH (right), general manager of Southside Electric Cooperative, accepts a certificate of appreciation from Angus Hastings, president of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. The certificate recognizes the board of directors and staff of Southside for their legislative activities in rural electrification.

Maxey to be speaker

Dr. Margaret N. Maxey, Assistant Director of the South Carolina Energy Research Institute, will be the guest speaker at Southside Electric Cooperative's Annual Meeting on Saturday, September 26.

A dynamic and inspiring speaker, Dr. Maxey is in constant demand as a lecturer on the vrious aspects of energy and its relationship to today's technology and future energy needs. She will speak on "Energy Needs in a Changing World".

Prior to Dr. Maxey's appointment as Assistant Director of the South Carolina Energy Research Institute, she was Associate Professor of Bioethics at the University of Detroit. She was appointed to the Faculty of Arts and Sciences in 1970 where she engaged in directing student programs and research at both graduate and undergraduate levels. She has also been Assistant Professor of Philosophy and Religion at Barat College, Lake Forest, Illinois.

Dr. Maxey has been an ethical consultant for the National Council of Churches in assessing a study document, "The Plutonium Economy." She has served as a consultant for Lawrence Livermore Laboratory, Livermore, California, on the question of nuclear waste disposal.

Dr. Maxey received her B.A. degree in philosophy at the Creighton University, Omaha; and M. A. Degree in philosophy (1963) at St. Louis University, and a second M. A. degree in systematic theology (1967) at the University of San Francisco. Her Ph. D. degree in Christian Ethics was completed at Union Theological Seminary, New York, in 1971.

Dr. Maxey is a member of the Society of Christian Ethics; the Institute on Religion in an Age of Science; the Institute of Society, Ethics, and the Life Sciences; the American Association for the Advancement of Science; the American Nuclear Society and the New York Academy of Sciences.

Buckingham Ruritans plan festival

Buckingham Ruritan Club members are busy preparing for the second annual Forest Festival to be held Saturday, October 10, 1981 from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Buckingham County High School. The Festival celebrates the contribution of forests and forest products to the quality of life in Central Virginia.

Central Virginia citizens are invited to participate in the Festival. Participation by community-based and commercial exhibitors is encouraged. Musicians and other entertainers are also invited. Interested persons should contact Steering Committee members Jimmy Dunn, 969-4567, Cary Robinson, 983-3599 and Aubrey Zumbro, 983-3235.

The major events for the Festival are forest contests. Contests will be held throughout the day including: crosscut sawing, bow sawing, chain sawing, log rolling, and fire fighting. Separate competition will be held for adults and young people up to 18 years of age. Prizes will be awarded for winners in all contests. Persons attending the festival can view contests from athletic field seating. Between contests, music and other entertainment will be available. For information on contest rules and procedures, contact Contest Chairman Luther Thomas, 983-2083.

Rides, balloons, and wooden nickels will be available for children of all ages. Also present will be Smokey the Bear. Plan to get your family portrait taken with Smokey.

Proceeds from the Festival go to Buckingham County Rescue Squad and Fire Departments as well as Ruritan sponsored community projects.

Raffle tickets are now available from Ruritan members. Top prize is a 14" chain saw.

Look for green Forest Festival bumper stickers advertising the event.

Bonds reaching maturity

Do you own Series E. U.S. Savings Bonds purchased between May 1, 1941 and April 1, 1952?

If so, you should know that they are reaching maturity exactly 40 years after date of issue. (For instance, a Bond purchased in May of 1943 will reach final maturity in May of 1983.) As these Bonds will not earn interest after reaching maturity, you should either cash them or, to extend tax deferral on earned E Bond interest, exchange them for current-income Series HH Bonds. Such exchanges may be made up to one year after final Series E Bond maturity.

All Series E Savings Bonds issued after April 1952 will earn interest into the 1980's. Interest rates on these Bonds have been substantially improved.

The table below is for your use in determining these maturities of your Bonds:

Date of Issue	Date of Maturity	Cur. Life of Bond
May 1941 - April, 1952	May 1981-Apr. 1992	40 years
May 1952-Jan. 1957	Jan. 1992-Sept. 1996	39 years, 8 mos.
Feb. 1957-May 1959	Jan. 1996-Apr. 1998	38 years, 11 mos.
June 1959-Nov. 1965	May, 1997-Aug. 2003	37 years, 9 mos.
Dec. 1965-May 1969	Dec. 1992-May 1996	27 years
June 1969-Nov. 1973	Apr. 1995-Sept. 1999	25 years, 10 mos.
Dec. 1973-June 1980	Dec. 1998-June 2005	25 years

The Treasury has advised that the current Series EE Savings Bonds have these special advantages:

*Interest rate of 8½% when held for 5 years, 9% when held to maturity of 8 years.

*Denominations of $50, $75, $100, $200, $500, $1,000 and $5,000 with a purchase price of 50% of face value, e.g., a $100 Series EE Bond costs $50.

*Special tax advantages.

Ruritans honor writers

Members of the Oakville Ruritan Club entertained winners of the recent Patriotism Essay Contest and their families at dinner on September 3 at the Oakville School Building in Oakville.

Stella Osborne, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse F. Osborne, was first place winner. Cheryl Walton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd G. Walton was second place winner and Kim Coggins, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Odell Coggins, received honorable mention.

Following dinner the winners each read their winning essay.

The decision to make the contest an annual event was announced at this meeting.

"The parents should be extremely proud of these young ladies," commented Norman Gagneur, Public Relations Chairman of the Oakville Ruritans, "they are a credit to their families and to their community. We were proud to have them at our meeting and enjoyed hearing them read essays."

"The Oakville Ruritans wish to thank the Appomattox County High School and all the people who put forth the effort to make this program a success," concluded Gagneur.

FFA holds meeting

The Appomattox County High School FFA Chapter held an executive committee meeting on August 26 for the purpose of planning chapter activities for the coming year.

The officers in attendance completed their tasks of revising the budget, the program of work and of committee assignments. Also, the programs for monthly meetings were tentatively disucssed.

A committee was appointed to review applications for the office of treasurer and then nominate one or more at the first monthly meeting for voting upon by members.

Open house set at APS PTA meeting

OPEN HOUSE will be the main feature when the Appomattox Primary School P.T.A. holds its first regular meeting of the 1981-1982 school year at 7:00 p.m. on September 17, 1981. After a brief business session, parents will be given the opportunity to visit the classrooms to preview your child's day, review materials and equipment, and ask questions concerning the instructional program.

President Paul Kvasnicka urges parents to "become involved in the education of your child by enlisting in the P.T.A." Many interesting programs and projects have been planned for the year and these can only be effective with the active support and participation of concerned parents.

Executive Board meeting of all officers and committee chairmen will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the library prior to the meeting.
